

Informative report (in line with the art. 13 of the legislative decree 30.06.2003 n.196
"Code of practice on handling personal data ")

Informative report

The company Forall Confezioni S.p.A., accountable for all information in its control concerning existing and future trading relations with its customers, in compliance with the art.13 of the legislative decree 30.06.2003 n.196 "Code of practice on handling personal data", gives the following information about the processing of its customers' personal data:

- Personal data are collected with contractual, commercial, statistical and promotional aims.
- The handling of personal information is supported by informatic, telematic, magnetic and paper tools.
- Data collection is compulsory in order to comply with administrative, legal and commercial regulations. If someone does not give his personal information (and this is not referable to any legal or contractual obligation), the person responsible for the handling of information will evaluate and will take a decision considering the importance of requested information in the commercial relation management.
- Personal information, according to the regulations in force, can be transferred to the following third parties: employees, according to the areas to which they belong (commercial, production, administration), Italian or foreign companies belonging to Forall Group (which our society controls or works with), sales agents, factoring companies, debt collection companies, credit insurance companies, banks, leasing companies, professionals and consultants, data processing companies, commercial information companies, companies offering transportation services.
- Data will be handled as long as the contract is in effect and even afterwards, in order to accomplish the law and to promote possible future commercial and marketing operations (as, for example, mailing operations or the use of other communication methods with commercial aims).
- Any individual may exercise the rights guaranteed in Law 196/2003 (art.7)
- Forall Confezioni S.p.A., via Fabio Filzi 34, Quinto Vicentino(VI) will hold collected data.
- Mr Antonio Valente is responsible for data processing (according to the legislative decree 30.06.2003, art.7). His address is: Quinto Vicentino, via Fabio Filzi 34.

FORALL CONFEZIONI S.p.A.