

Informative report (in line with the art. 13 of the legislative decree 30.06.2003 n.196
"Code of practice on handling personal data ")

Informative report for suppliers and consultants

The company Forall Confezioni S.p.A., accountable for all information related to current and future commercial relations with its suppliers-consultants, in compliance with the art.13 of the legislative decree 30.06.2003 n.196 "Code of practice on handling personal data", gives the following information about the processing of its suppliers and consultants' personal data:

- Personal data are collected with contractual and commercial aims.
- The handling of personal information is supported by informatic, telematic, magnetic and paper tools.
- Data collection is compulsory in order to comply with administrative, legal and commercial obligations coming from the management of contracts concerning the supplying of materials, equipments, machines, facilities and various services, work contracts and consultancy contracts.
- Personal information, according to the regulations in force, can be transferred to the following third parties: employees, according to the areas to which they belong (commercial, production, administration), Italian or foreign companies belonging to Forall Group (which our society controls or works with), banks.
- Data will be handled as long as the contract is in effect and even afterwards, in order to accomplish the law.
- Any individual may exercise the rights guaranteed in Law 196/2003 (art.7)
- Forall Confezioni S.p.A., via Fabio Filzi 34, Quinto Vicentino(VI) will hold collected data.
- Mr Antonio Valente is responsible for data processing (according to the legislative decree 30.06.2003, art.7). His address is: Quinto Vicentino, via Fabio Filzi 34.

FORALL CONFEZIONI S.p.A.